Article VII

This corporation shall be a non-profit corporation and shall have no capital stock. It shall be operated and maintained by such membership dues, assessments and endowments as the Executive Committee shall determine to be necessary or acceptable for the proper functioning of the corporation. Under no circumstances shall any of the net earnings and net assets of the corporation inure, or be distributed to, the benefit of any member, director or other private person, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, to reimburse actual expenses reasonably incurred for the benefit for this corporation, and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the corporation as set forth herein above. The corporation shall neither participate in, nor intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of any statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (a) a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law, as amended), or by (b) any corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United State Internal Revenue law, as amended).

Article VIII

Regular membership in the corporation shall be comprised of the state fleet official whose agency is established by state statutes or laws, regulations or policies and who is directly charged with the responsibility and authority to requisition, title, assign, service, monitor utilization, declare surplus and exercise managerial control over a fleet of state-owned motor vehicles in each of the United States, the Territories of Guam, the Virgin Islands and American Samoa, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the District of Columbia.

Additional members from those organizations described above will also be treated as regular members.

At the discretion of the Executive Committee NCSFA may expand its membership base to include fleet personnel associated with other public sector entities such as, counties, cities, and townships, and those associated with Canadian provincial governments. Membership may also be extended working in the press and corporate entities and NCSFA Retirees

Article IX

Each regular member shall be entitled to one vote upon each matter properly brought before the membership for vote. No proxy voting will be allowed.

Article X

The dues and assessments of members shall be fixed by the Executive Committee. Unless otherwise fixed by the Executive Committee, dues shall be payable July of each year and shall be deposited by the Treasurer in a fund from which disbursements may be made by the Treasurer or as authorized or directed by the Executive Committee.

Article XI

Annual and special meetings of the members of the corporation shall be held as provided by the Bylaws of the organization.

Article XII

The Executive Committee shall have the power to make and adopt the original Bylaws. The members of the corporation shall have the power to amend and repeal Bylaws to govern this corporation as provided in the Bylaws, provided any amendments are in accordance with, and are not in conflict with these articles. Matters pertaining to capital outlay must be approved by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Committee. An amendment to these articles may be adopted by a vote of two-thirds of the members at any annual or special meeting of the members, the notice of which sets forth the proposed amendment or summary of the change to be made thereby.

Article XIII

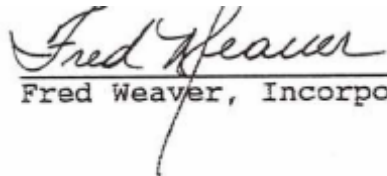

In the event of the dissolution of the corporation, the Executive committee shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets exclusively for the purpose for which the corporation was founded by distribution to one or more organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, scientific or literary purposes as shall at the time qualify as (a) as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United State Internal Revenue law, as amended), and (b) as an organization contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (b) (I) (A) (vi) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United State Internal Revenue law, as amended), as the Executive Committee shall determine.
